

Bailey Tipps and Emily K. Brown have represented The Austin Proper Residences since 2015, collaborating with The KOR Group on sales and marketing from the building's design inception through the initial closeout. With a background in luxury residences, having led sales for Four Seasons Residences and those atop The W Austin Hotel, our combined understanding of the evolving downtown market is unparalleled. Eva Lovely provides a strong eye for detail and communication, having worked for decades in advertising and film production while managing various aspects of custom properties worldwide prior to joining the Austin Proper team. Given our long-term relationships with owners and tenants within the building, we are a great resource for resales and leases both on and off-market.

We look forward to helping you find your new home in Austin!
